We are Dedicated to Preserving Florida's History

The purpose of The Florida Historical Society and the Seward/Mapes Homestead is to mark and preserve historic places, acquire items with antique or historical value, to preserve them in or near original form as possible and make these items available for the benefit and education of the public.

We strive to impress upon its members and residents the importance of keeping alive our heritage as a source of interest and information for its unique educational value.

Please support The Seward/Mapes Homestead and Florida Historical Society's annual Fruit Sale Fundraiser. All proceeds go to continue the restoration of the 1840's Green Family House and the Seward/Mapes Homestead.
